Mr. Cook suggested that the Cultural Trail maps be the same as the Gullah Neighborhood Signs that are going in. Mr. Schmitt

b. Review of Turtle Project & Next Steps

Mr. Herron that this is an exciting project that needs to be executed tastefully, nothing cartoonish. He recommends identifying targets in the potential core base and sitting down and talking with them about partnerships for creating the project. Ms. McEwen reported that in a conversation with Ms. Nelson, she championed the need for committee leadership and partners within the community who will commit to the project before we take any further steps.

The public commented on this project. Heather Rath recommended speaking with the HHSO about their painted piano project a couple years ago and recommended that the art needed to be interactive. Amber Kuehn of the Sea Turtle Patrol remarked that this would be a great opportunity for education and suggested the turtles be anatomically correct Loggerhead Sea Turtles. She commented that the Turtle Patrol would like to partner on the project.

Mr. Herron continued that the marketing options and revenue potential was endless including informational tent card at restaurants and hotels, miniature turtle sales at gift shops and other merchandising. Ms. Piekut, Mr. Perez, and Ms. Kuehn voiced interest in participating in the initial work for the project.

c. Updates on other projects

Ms. McEwen gave updates on the Island Rec Mural project stating that the ball was rolling with the Rec Center and we were waiting on feedback on our grant proposal to the Community Foundation of the Lowcountry. Ms. McEwen also reported that the Lantern Parade was included in the Town's ATAX applications for the year and that she had met with Roni Allbritton to discuss partnering with Shelter Cove Towne Center as the location.
