Present from Town Council: None

Present from Town Staff: Sheryse DuBose, Taylor Ladd

- The meeting began at 4:05 pm.
- The group edited the draft goals that were decided at the last meeting.
 - Prioritize education by graduating, prepared for the work place or higher education, which will promote life-long learning and attract young families and businesses to Hilton Head Island.
 - Reimagining our venues and historic places so that they are inviting, accessible, and utilized by all.
 - Ensuring community development on the Island is sustainable, inclusive, equitable, and innovative.
 - Create awareness and respect for our core community and environmental values, ensuring inclusiveness and equality for all residents and guests.
 - Promote multi-dimensional diversity on the island, now and into the future.
 - Promote equitable cultural tourism to improve the quality of life for all stakeholders.
 - Ensure care and education is available, accessible, affordable, innovative, and benefits all.
- Taylor Ladd reminded the group of the Development Team meeting on October 7th where all of the groups will present their draft goals. The public would be able to engage with the goals at the Open House on October 8th. Taylor Ladd also made the group aware that the goals would be posted on the open forum platform on the Town website for public comment. It was explained to the group that Staff will present the goals at the Development Team meeting. The group was asked to confer with Sheryse DuBose as to whom will be available at the meeting to answer questions posed by the Development Team.

- The meeting was adjourned at 5:10 pm.
