

Conservation and Growth Framework

The Conservation and Growth Framework map provides base direction for possible growth and redevelopment opportunities on the Island and where investment can occur. The Island is committed to maintaining the character of the community through conscientious environmental and neighborhood conversation efforts, while also allowing for additive and complementary new projects in appropriate locations. This map depicts where these future conversations may begin to occur.